Interviewer's Comments

Lerato is an amazing person who seems very mature for her age. She was adopted at age five by a lovely family and gained four lovely siblings in the process. Lerato is a lively, adaptable, positive go-getter with a can-do attitude. She enjoys being around people, especially children, and has involved herself in the care and education of children ever since she was a teenager herself. One can easily tell that working with children is a passion of hers since most of her involvement has been as a volunteer. Lerato is a family-orientated person who enjoys the home environment and the warmth and laughs that come with it. Additionally, she enjoys exercise, cooking, baking, writing and being creative. She is also very comfortable around animals.

Lerato's dream is to become a teacher and she plans to start studying part-time whilst being an au pair. She is a confident homework assistant and is willing to assist up to Grade 12 level with the subjects she is familiar with. She is easy to get along with, flexible, and willing to assist in any way she can. We believe that Lerato is an amazing au pair who will be an asset to any family willing to offer her the opportunity to assist.
